Other Information

Cost of the Programme: As a part of student exchange agreement, incoming exchange students are exempted from tuition fees at IIM Indore. However, exchange students are required to pay hostel and miscellaneous charges for their on-campus housing at IIM Indore. Following is the breakup of Institutional Fees for incoming exchange students at IIM Indore:

Fees for One Term

S. No.	Head	Amount in INR
1.	Hostel Accommodation and Miscellaneous Fees*	30,000
2.	Refundable in cash Caution Fee	5,000
	Total	35,000

*Miscellaneous Fee includes course material, access to lectures, computing facilities, library, medical dispensary facility etc. Medical facility includes a dispensary at the institute where first-aid and other routine medical treatment is given. Basic medicines would be provided in the dispensary. For other drugs, doctors will give prescription, which participants have to buy on their own.

 To be refunded in cash at the end of the term after deducting dues, if any.

It is responsibility of students to collect their caution money a day before their departure; else, the transfer will be conducted through the bank with applicable transaction charges deducted, to be borne by the student.

 Any revision to the fee will be notified.

NOTE: Student should have a medical insurance of their own in order to meet any hospitalization expenses. These fees can be paid either by bank transfer or through credit card/debit card or cash deposit in the campus branch of State Bank of India. The fees are required to be paid on or before registration.
