India-UK trade deal signing soon

India and the United Kingdom (UK) are likely to sign their free trade agreement (FTA) soon after legal checks are completed, as per media reports. The pact, concluded in May 2025, may be signed in London if Prime Minister Narendra Modi visits, though its implementation could take a year due to UK parliamentary procedures. The agreement allows India tariff elimination on 99 per cent of tariff lines, boosting exports in labour and technology-intensive sectors. It also grants a three-year social security payment exemption for Indian workers in the UK. India has offered duty cuts on UK alcohol and car imports, while ensuring protection for its automobile sector. Bilateral trade, now around USD 60 billion, is projected to double by 2030.
