Our new integrated platform is www.crisili360.com

Crisil i360 is India's only intelligence platform, providing a comprehensive, 360-degree perspective on the macroeconomic landscape, as well as industry, company and even project-level insights.

Here, you can click on the login button and log in using your id and password.

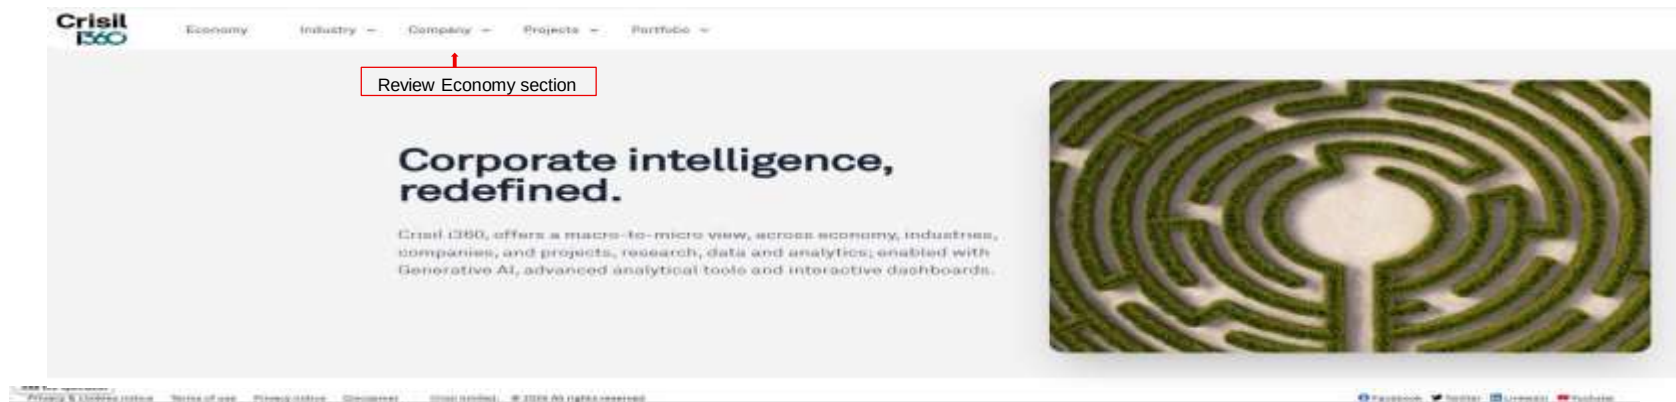

Landing page of Crisil i360

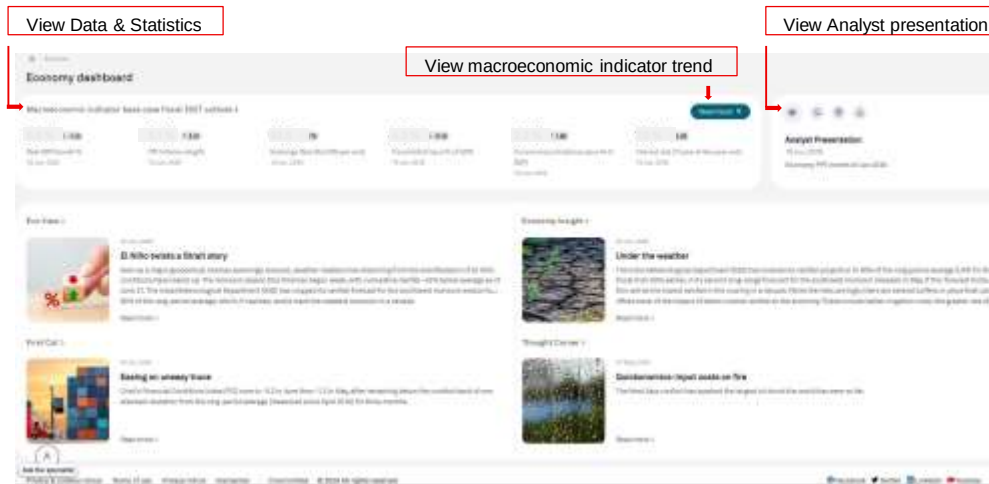

In the top end of the landing page, you will see various tabs. These heads cover the various offerings we have had under multiple platforms which are now consolidated under Crisil i360 to offer you a seamless user interface and experience.

Economy Dashboard

Once users click on the Economy header in the top end of landing page, they will land on the Economy dashboard. The Economy dashboard is the central hub for tracking macroeconomic developments, trends, reports, and statistical indicators.

Economy Dashboard

The Economy Dashboard provides a consolidated view of key macroeconomic indicators, helping users track economic trends and developments.

It features Eco View for detailed economic analysis, First Cut for quick updates on recent events, Economy Insights for research-driven articles, and Thought Corner for expert opinions and thought leadership content.

Together, these sections offer a comprehensive source of economic intelligence and market insights.

Macroeconomic Indicator Trend

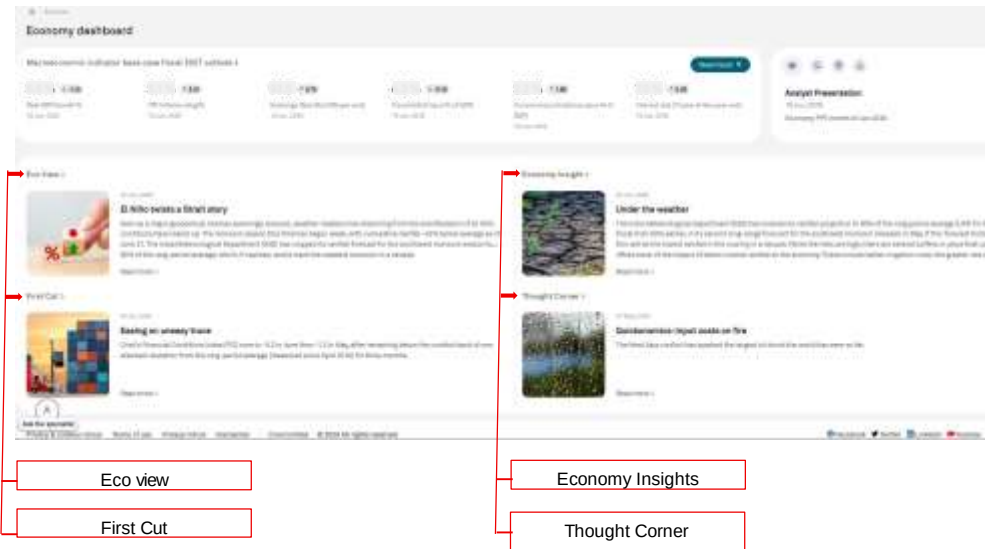

On the top of the dashboard, the users can view the Macroeconomic indicators in first view and on click of the View trend button on top right, the trend chart of the key indicators is displayed where data can be viewed on hover similar to the Crisil research platform.

Further the header for the macroeconomic indicator redirects to the Economy data & statistics section where all the key economic indicators can be visualized on platform and exported in excel if required.
